Opening Day at Sainte-Marie

Date and Time: Saturday, May 3 10:00 am - 5:00 pm

Address: 16164 Highway 12 East, Midland ON, L4R 4K8

Ontario's first European Community, Sainte-Marie among the Hurons was the headquarters for the French Jesuit Mission to the Huron-Wendat people. In 1639, the Jesuits, along with French lay workers, began construction of a palisaded community that included barracks, a church, workshops, residences, and a sheltered area for Indigenous visitors. This community was abandoned and burned down in 1649.

After extensive archaeological and historical research, Sainte-Marie among the Hurons is now recreated on its original site, where the mission's compelling story is brought to life with costumed historical interpreters and activities.

What's included in your admission

- Access the fully reconstructed mission community of Sainte-Marie
- Watch an introductory video on the story of the historic mission headquarters
- Connect with friendly and knowledgeable costumed historical interpreters
- Visit the Church of Saint-Joseph, where the graves of Canadian Martyrs Father Jean de Brébeuf and Gabriel Lalemant are located
- Learn the story of Sainte-Marie with a free audio tour, accessible through the Huronia Historical Parks app
- Meet our friendly farm animals in the stables

The Sattalites

Date and Time: Saturday, May 31 8:00 pm - 10:30 pm

Address: 333 King Street

Toronto reggae group The Sattalites have been a mainstay of the Canadian reggae scene since their formation in 1980, Founded by Jamaican trumpeter Jo Jo Bennett and Canadian saxophone player Fergus Hambleton, originally as a music school to teach reggae and ska, The Sattalites quickly became a popular mainstay in the vibrant Queen Street scene of the 1980s. In their career they packed clubs and concerts all across Canada and the US, including a visit to Reggae Sunsplash in Jamaica. During these years the group recorded six albums and won two Juno awards while building up a loyal and devoted fan base.

In 2025 The Sattalites are busy recording new material and delighting audiences with their dynamic stage show, featuring a fine horn section and wonderful vocals. It's always the best in reggae and ska music...featuring their hits "It's Too Late To Turn Back Now", "Gimme Some Kinda Sign" and "Wild", plus a great selection of Jamaican classics. With an awesome 4 piece horn section and the wonderful vocals of Fergus Hambleton and Hermina George, the band provides a wonderful Caribbean style evening of dancing and musical fun for all ages.
