Stained Glass Chickadees

Date and Time: Sunday, November 10 12:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: 16160 Highway 12 East

Discover the world of stained glass – discover the world of “bending light” - as you create your own Chickadee suncatcher with holly and berries!

In this 4-hour workshop, you will learn the Tiffany or “foil” method of doing stained glass. You will have the chance to work with cutters, grinders, and soldering irons provided by the Instructor. You will have the opportunity to learn the entire process of creating a stained glass design: from cutting a pattern to the finished piece and every step in between.

This is a unique opportunity to learn the basics of stained glass art - without having to invest in all the glass or equipment.

PLUS, you will get to go home with your own adorable Chickadee, the official “heart thief” of Wye Marsh. Chickadee-dee-dee!

Sue Foley: One Guitar Woman

Date and Time: Wednesday, November 20 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 333 King St. Midland

ONE GUITAR WOMAN is more than a tribute. Foley doesn't merely cover these artists' songs; she absorbs their style and inhabits the soul of the music. Her guitar work is so deep and natural that it seems to rise from the same roots that gave birth to the originals, while her vibrant vocals bring new life to the lyrics and make the songs her own.

SUE FOLEY is an acclaimed guitarist, singer/songwriter and writer who began her professional career in her t eens. She's released thirteen albums and has garnered several awards, including Traditional Female Artist of the Year at The Blues Music Awards in Memphis four consecutive times. (2020/22/23/24).
