Do You Remember When? Penetanguishene Screening

Date and Time: Thursday, January 30 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Address: 13 Burke Street

Exciting news! The Culture Alliance is hosting two special screening events for the third series of our “Do You Remember When?” video project.

The latest installment, funded in part by the Government of Canada’s New Horizons for Seniors Program, continues the tradition of bringing to life the stories of our seniors in the communities of Midland, Penetanguishene, Tiny, and Tay. Through their candid reflections, these storytellers provide invaluable insights into the history and culture of our communities.

Join us at one—or both!—screenings to celebrate the stories that make our region so unique.

Screening 1: Penetanguishene and Tiny Interviews

Date and Time: Thursday, January 30, 2025, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Location: Penetanguishene Museum (13 Burke Street)

Screening 2: Midland and Tay Interviews

Date and Time: Thursday, February 6, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Location: Huronia Museum (549 Little Lake Park Road)

Both screenings are free to attend, but space is limited. Please visit culturealliance.ca or email info@culturealliance.ca to register.

Solitary Man: Neil Diamond Tribute

Date and Time: Friday, January 31 7:30 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: 333 King St.

A tribute to Neil Diamond on the last Friday of January featuring Will Chambers. His show appeals to all ages and he loves to get the audience involved by encouraging them to clap and sing along. Will's natural resemblance to Neil Diamond, his flawless replication of Neil's singing voice, combined with his outstanding stage presence has been captivating audiences wherever he goes. The response from Neil fans has been an unbelievable experience. Will is both friendly and personable and people approach him with ease, he is always available to speak to people after the performance and welcomes their comments.
